

I am writing this comment as an advocate for K-LOVE radio stations. K-LOVE radio has been with me and my family through all of our journey's across the country. They were there for me when my husband served in the Navy and would go out to sea for work-ups. They were there for me when we moved to Arizona, away from our friends, as a source of comfort and encouragement. They were there for us when we made our move to Northern California and will be there when we make our next move to Bakersfield. This move will, again, take us from family and friends. However, I know as long as I can hear K-LOVE, I know that there is family all around me.

If K-LOVE were to be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster, I feel that it would effect my community in a negative way. I live in a town with an unemployment rate that exceeds 35%. Some of the ONLY encouragement these people get is through K-LOVE. I know people in my community that have lost loved ones recently and it has been songs on this station that have given them encouragement to go on and feel comfort. In the lonely hours of the early dawn, sometimes all these people have for a source or relieve is their Bible and K-LOVE.

I also believe that the service provided by K-LOVE is in the publics interest. No matter what you may believe personally, I and millions of others, believe that this radio station is a life line to the communities around us. For some, it is the first time they have heard that God loves them. That HE forgives them. That HE died for thier sins and wants them to come to him. This may be the only positive thing they hear during the day. This may be the only way they hear of Christs' love for them and choose to live another day.

Please reconsider moving K-LOVE to a LPFM station. There are too many people that need this encouragement. Please leave MY K-LOVE right where it is....THANK YOU!
